Durham Arts Council has announced new occupancy rules due to budget constraints.

The building must be vacated by 9:30PM. If not, a $30.00/hr. charge will be levied. The building will be closed at 5:00 on Sunday. The charge will be increased to $35.00 after July 1. A copy of the letter of notification is included with the official minutes.

Scholarship project: The committee has met. It decided to redouble efforts over the summer months. Private teachers, as well as high school band directors will be contacted. The committee will convene again in mid-July.

June 28: The board will meet for a retreat at the home of David Brass, 3:00 – 6:00 PM.

Value and modes of advertising were discussed at length. No action decisions were made.

Tom informed the board that discussions were underway to join the band of the Durham School of the Arts for the fall concert. The concert would be held in Weaver Auditorium at the school.

Farmer's Market concert - David will make the appropriate contacts to set a date.

June 21 Concert:

Choreography of moving and setup discussed.

Randy Taylor will prepare a printed program.

Tom Shaffer expressed concern for summer recruitment. Asked if ads or notifications could be placed in the free sections of the Independent and Spectator, in addition to maintaining the web site.

First rehearsal of 2009-2010 season: August 27.

Meeting adjourned: 7:10 PM
